I bring you warm compliments from the Association of African Universities (AAU).

The Association is very grateful for the hard work you have conducted over the decades to strengthen relations among all persons of African descent and the world of academia.

The Association of African Universities (AAU), is the apex body for all African universities with membership of over four hundred universities in forty-six African countries. The AAU is the lead implementing agency for the African Union on all issues of higher education in Africa.

The Association of African Universities is pleased to endorse the Pan African Heritage World and Museum. We entreat all well-meaning organizations, individuals, and governments to support this noble initiative to preserve our heritage and promote the African personality.

Please accept the assurances of my highest regard.
